

2007 ANNUAL CONFERENCE MISSION OFFERING

Children at Hartzell Primary School, Old Mutare, Zimbabwe • Mike Dubose/UWINS

a hope and a future

The prophet Jeremiah wrote that God wants to give us “a hope and a future.” Children and young people remind us every day of this promise.

You can support ministries with children and youth through your gifts to the 2007 Annual Conference Mission Offering.

Bishop Hope Morgan Ward has designated 50 percent of the offering to support ministries with children and youth in Zimbabwe, and the other 50 percent for Mississippi for the same purpose. “In this way, we will continue to engage chabadza, friendship and partnership with those already at work,” said Bishop Ward. “May we sing doxologies of praise as our gifts overflow toward those who Jesus blessed long ago.”

May we sing
doxologies of praise
as our gifts overflow
toward those who Jesus blessed long ago.

“Chabadza” is an African word that means helping someone who is already at work in the field. In 2006 United Methodists in Mississippi and Zimbabwe joined together in the Chabadza Covenant.

The offering will be received during evening worship June 11 at the 2007 Mississippi Annual Conference.
